Dust Upon The Sea - Dust Upon the Sea - raiding in the Aegean. As a signals and intelligence officer, the author was in the position of neither playing an active role in handling of the boats or the raids themselves. This means the narrative is a bit of a travelogue, not uninteresting, but it does get a bit tedious at times. 1947. First Edition. 215 pages. Green pictorial dust jacket over red cloth. Inscription to front pastedown. Pages are lightly tanned and thumbed at the edges, with some foxing. Binding has remained firm. Tape marks to endpapers and pastedowns.
